

Dear [name],

Thank you so much for applying to the [company name] position. We were impressed with your resume and cover letter, and we had a great time speaking with you over the phone. Unfortunately, we won't be able to offer you that position at this time.

We love that you have such a strong work ethic and are passionate about what you do. We wish you luck in finding your next opportunity!

Best wishes,

[Your name]